Tomorrow, on our national Independence Day, we inevitably honor those first Americans whose special bravery led them to sign a document making us into an entirely new nation. Declaring us independent of England, they set the course for the world's most successful democracy. It is natural for us to honor these national heroes of ours.

It is interesting to note that the Person who deserves the most honor from us, is memorialized in a unique way: in a living sacrament of His Body and Blood. Obviously God wanted it done this way, lest we think of Jesus as dead and not living among us. His decision to make us His messengers in our time a tremendous honor, both fascinating and humbling. He has chosen us, with all our faults and failings, to be on His honor roll. Each generation accepts the honor, aided by the Holy Spirit.

This weekend it is only right to ask ourselves how about our enthusiasm? If there were such a thing as a "zeal meter" where would the needle land for us? Sometimes, sad to say, we are embarrassed to be known as a friend of Jesus. We prefer not to witness to Him. We forget our baptismal mission. What a shame it would be to find out we missed being on Christ's honor roll. But that doesn't have to be the story of our life. The good news is that we always have the chance to change with each new day.

Our Declaration of Independence states that we are "endowed by our Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." Thus endowed, we as Christians can be missionaries for God, our Creator, in ways that our liberty makes possible and our happiness intensifies.

We Say Goodbye to FR. RAPHAEL...

Many of you already know that Fr. Raphael Lee no longer resides at St. Henry Rectory. He has been transferred to St. Joseph in Demarest, NJ because of the need there for a Korean-speaking priest. We pray for God to bless him in his new residence.

Monday is the 4th of July. This birthday of our nation is also a time for us to pause and give thanks to God for all the gifts we have received from living in this great nation. Our pride as Americans enriches our pride as Christians. We will celebrate the liberty and justice of being a people formed in the image of God. May we thank God for our nation and thank our nation by being the best Americans we can be. God bless America!

- ◆ There will be ONE Mass on Monday, July 4th at 9 AM.
- ◆ Note: The Rectory and Religious Education Offices will be closed on Monday, July 4th.

Parish Registration

Formal membership with the parish in which you feel comfortable creates a sense of family. It is your spiritual home. We invite you to register with St. Henry Parish. If you are not sure whether or not you are already registered, call Jean at the rectory office—201-436-0857. However, if you are not receiving offering envelopes or various parish mailings, chances are you are not registered. Keep in mind that a person is not automatically a registered member because they were married here, were brought up here or attended St. Henry's school. To register, come to the rectory office, between 9 AM and 4 PM weekdays and simply complete a registration card. If this is not possible, call Jean at the rectory office. Remember that membership with your parish is a requirement if you wish to be a godparent or a sponsor for Confirmation. Parents who wish to have their child baptized or who wish to register their child for religious education must be members of the parish.
