If we were to be asked to identify an all-encompassing theme for 2017, as we find ourselves this weekend deep into its tenth month, one word springs to mind: violence. We've seen it in our streets, and on the screens of our many devices, large and small. Road rage, street protests about political differences and presidential decisions, "hot button" issues like immigration, sexual preferences, racism, assaults between the leaders of our country and those of other regimes. The graph of violence is depressing and these matters tempt us to turn the news off in whatever form we receive it. Yet our instinct to know what's new draws us back. We somehow recognize that an ostrich approach to reality is unhealthy. But where, we ask, can we turn for perspective as well as peace? For Christian believers, the answer is the same as it has been for twenty-one centuries: turn to Jesus.

The reaction is predictable: shutdown of the cynics, the atheists and the agnostics. This kind of reaction has been going on since Jesus Himself was personally present announcing His new way of thinking and doing things. Such rejection always seems to be the fate of people with a fresh idea or a different take on the prevailing wisdom.

It is crucial for us to remember when we think of Jesus that He is truly God in the flesh. There is nothing beyond His power, for He can "subdue mountains and make kings run in His service." Fortified by the Holy Eucharist, our certain task is not to lose confidence in Christ, or let violence have the last word. We are a people of hope. "Hope is putting faith to work when doubting would be easier."

Our 2nd Parish monthly Family Time was a huge success! All the children decorated pumpkins for themselves and our parish staff. Special thanks to Rich Marchitto, Aida Lopez, Erin Aidukas and all the others who helped make it a fun time for all the families. Special thanks to our youth, Olivia Aidukas, Gwendolyn Good, Alysia Santos and Gina Vaccaro for all their help as well. Our next Family Time will be Sunday, November 19th following the 10 AM Mass. The Actors Garage will be here helping the children make a video commercial and they will also make a Thanksgiving centerpiece. All are welcome to attend.

TODAY, October 22nd, our 3rd Grade Sunday and Wednesday parents/guardians and their children and catechists are invited to attend our Meet and Greet session at 9 AM in the Pine Room. All 3rd Grade children will receive their picture missal book. The children should go directly to the Pine Room instead of class. Catechists should bring them.

Thank you to the 5 catechists who took time out of their busy schedules and attended the Spotlight course on Saturday, Oct. 21st which was entitled "Morality", a very meaningful class: Amy Vieira, Gladys Nieves, Carol Gonzalez, Veronica Pinto and Dennis Grau.

All children in our program will receive a Rosary in honor of Our Blessed Mother, who gave us and the children of Fatima the Rosary over 100 years ago. Catechists will teach the children how to pray the Rosary. You may want to consider praying the Rosary together as a family.

All the children in our program will also receive a box of offering envelopes. Each box depicts what stewardship should mean to us; and on each envelope is a place for the children to write their "Good Deeds".

Parish Registration

Formal membership with the parish in which you feel comfortable creates a sense of family. Your parish is your spiritual home. We invite you to register with St. Henry Parish. If you are not sure whether or not you are already registered, call Jean at the rectory office—201-436-0857. However, if you are not receiving offering envelopes or various parish mailings, chances are you are not registered. Keep in mind that a person is not automatically a registered member because they were married here, were brought up here or attended St. Henry's school. To register, come to the rectory office, between 9 AM and 4 PM weekdays and simply complete a registration card. If this is not possible, call Jean at the rectory office.

Remember that membership with your parish is a requirement if you wish to be a godparent or a sponsor for Confirmation. Parents who wish to have their child baptized or who wish to register their child for religious education must be members of the parish.

To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under heaven (Ecclesiastes 3:11)

"... a time to be born to eternal life..."

Remember in your prayers those of our parish, family, friends and community who have recently died, especially Thomas Lyons & Laura McLaughlin as well as those who have died in the service of our Country

"... and a time for peace in all the world..."

Pray for our servicemen and women at home and abroad.
