You shall Love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself...

Consider this powerful command given to us by the Lord of light Himself: Jesus our Savior. We know this greatest commandment. But sadly, we know our track record on keeping it. We blame our damaged will power. The first part of the commandment isn't all that hard, we conclude. The matter of loving God is relatively easy, particularly if we only think of Him on Sunday. No, the real rub is that radical connection of loving my neighbor as myself. The linking of that pesky creature next door, next cubicle, next pew, next in line. He/she's the problem. Does God really want me to love him/her? That seems to be asking a little too much. Note, God never said you have to like him/her. But can you at least wish the best for him/her? After all, that's exactly what Christ did. He even forgave His neighbors (us) from the cross. Such love never has to be given in spectacular ways. It is usually done every day by people in a million unnoticed ways. May such love be in our hearts for all those the Lord has created

Parish Registration

Formal membership with the parish in which you feel comfortable creates a sense of family. Your parish is your spiritual home. We invite you to register with St. Henry Parish. If you are not sure whether or not you are already registered, call Jean at the rectory office—201-436-0857. However, if you are not receiving offering envelopes or various parish mailings, chances are you are not registered. Keep in mind that a person is not automatically a registered member because they were married here, were brought up here or attended St. Henry's school. To register, come to the rectory office, between 9 AM and 4 PM weekdays and simply complete a registration card. If this is not possible, call Jean at the rectory office.

Remember that membership with your parish is a requirement if you wish to be a godparent or a sponsor for Confirmation. Parents who wish to have their child baptized or who wish to register their child for religious education must be members of the parish.

To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under heaven (Ecclesiastes 3:11)

"... a time to be born..."

"a time to love..."

"... a time to be born to eternal life..."

Remember in your prayers those of our parish, family, friends and community who have recently died, especially Patricia Ann DePaolo

as well as those who have died in the service of our Country

"... and a time for peace in all the world..."

Pray for our servicemen and women at home and abroad.
