In the good ol' summertime, the local bookstore is apt to coax us to buy either "Books for the Season" or "Books for the Beach" with attractive displays right near the store entrance. The books are light reading to be sure, meant to accompany a cold lemonade or a limoncello. Just enough to hold our attention along with a coating of sunscreen firmly in place. If you're fortunate enough to be able to read on the beach, your enjoyment can be at least doubled.

However, if your summertime vacation brings you near a large body of water, you don't need a printed or electronic book at all. You can read God's open book of Nature, and even gain a perfect backdrop for prayer. Nobody will know what you're doing, because you'll be silent. The ocean offers its own invitation to go deep inside yourself where serious thought resides. As we gaze, there is the fascination of its vast expanse; the ever-changing water colors; the constancy of its crashing waves; the ebb and flow of its tides. It is all free for the taking.

In our youth, all of that is usually lost to activities like swimming and body surfing as uses for the ocean. But with the onset of the years, we benefit from the wisdom of a second look at what is right in front of us at the beach, and we see new things. Especially if we are blest with a Christian outlook on life.

If you require any additional information, please call the Religious Education Office at 201-339-0319 or Marie Pope cell 908-612-6674.

IMPORTANT: In the past months we have noticed that some families are using their children's Religious Education offering envelopes for their weekly donations. Children's envelopes are meant for children's offerings only. All parishioners receive offering envelopes in the mail, quarterly, printed with their name and unique parishioner number. If you are not receiving offering envelopes, call the rectory, 201-436-0857.

100% Participation is Needed!

In addition to helping thousands of people in need each year, the Sharing God's Blessings Annual Appeal also benefits our parish. If we exceed our goal of $44,248, we will receive a rebate which we will use to offset expenses. Currently, our parish has raised 84% of our goal. Please consider donating today. Envelopes may be found in the back of the church, or you may contact the rectory office, 201-436-0857.

Our Responsorial Psalm

During the Summer we are using Seasonal Responsorial Psalms. The same Psalm is used for a number of Sundays. The refrain is easy for you to memorize and sing well:

Ps. 19: "Lord, you have the words of Everlasting life".

The musical setting is by the contemporary composer, Michael Guimont.

The Bereavement Ministry of Consolation continues all year. This ministry invites anyone who may be interested in becoming a bereavement minister to please contact the rectory at 201-436-0857. All bereavement ministers will be trained to work with families and help them prepare the Funeral Mass.

Oh God...

Oh, God, when I have food,
 help me to remember the hungry;
 when I have work, help me
 to remember the jobless;
 when I have a warm home,
 help me to remember the homeless;
 when I am without pain,
 help me to remember those who suffer;
 and remembering, help me
 to destroy my complacency
 and bestir my compassion.
 Make me concerned enough
 to help, by word and deed,
 those who cry out
 for what we take for granted.

*For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink,
 I was a stranger and you welcomed me..." - Matthew 25:35*
