The gregarious, wise and witty archbishop of New York, Cardinal Timothy Dolan, chose as his motto: "To whom shall we go?" The good cardinal has his own reasons for the motto choice, but how apropos it is for him as archbishop of New York. Here he is, a spiritual leader of the city that is acknowledged as the very center of the communications industry for our country, if not the world. A city where the options for basing one's outlook on life are almost without limit, and its bishop is in full agreement with the first bishop of Rome in declaring to New York: "You (Jesus) have the words of eternal life." The presumption here is "You alone, O Jesus."

For those of us who have never walked away from Jesus, it's a good time to reflect on why we stay. Ask yourself: Do I come early to Mass so that I can pray and "get myself in place?" Do I at least arrive on time so as not disturb those already present, or am I habitually late? How do I dress? God certainly deserves my respect in this matter. Do I really pay attention to the Readings and homily? Do I fight distractions? Do I join in spiritually with the prayers the priest says?

We know we'd be proud to answer .yes, but what will my answer mean tomorrow morning? Or when my spouse asks me to do something? What effect will my answer have at this Wednesday's meeting? Or when I spend my pay? We have to ask ourselves things like this all the time, and answer as we know Jesus would. Good use of time. Guarantee of a happy eternity. Remember: He who seldom thinks of heaven is not likely to get there.

"I will praise your name forever, my King and my God".

Father Raul Gaviola has been appointed by the Archbishop as Temporary Administrator of our parish. Bishop Tom remains our pastor, but Fr. Raul will take care of the day to day administration as Bishop Tom undergoes treatment. Let us all continue to keep Bishop Tom in our thoughts and prayers.

We have guest speakers at several of our meetings throughout the year in addition to planning our other various activities such as our Annual Christmas Party held at a local restaurant, our 2 retreats, one of which is to a retreat center the other in the parish center, our bake sales and the City Wide Communion Breakfast with the other local parishes. We also have a Blessing of the Roses Mass in October and a May Crowning. Please consider joining St. Henry's Rosary Society to honor our Blessed Mother. More details can be found on the insert or by calling Roseann Hogan at 201-436-9159.

Once again, all parishioners are invited to pray the Rosary with us after our monthly Masses. The Rosary is a powerful prayer, especially for today's world. We look forward to seeing you. God Bless,
