Is there a way to measure faith? The simple answer is to say that the measure of faith is love. Faith is manifested by our actions because belief in God calls for a response, especially in our dealings with other people. But what criteria can we use to see if faith is a genuine relationship with God or just a good idea, an acceptance of God's existence? We can measure faith by three criteria: how well it is understood, how much it is practiced, and how deeply it is treasured.

Faith has content, basic information we call doctrine and dogma, that is the core of what we believe. Knowledge of faith gives an indication of how important it is to a person and how interested they are in knowing and understanding it. Since faith calls for action, how well and even how often we practice it gives us an idea as to how much a part of our daily life it truly is. Prayer, worship, acts of charity, and good example or witness are part of the daily routine of living faith. Finally how faith influences our decision-making and our values shows how much we choose what is important, what we do, and how we live, then its value is high. Faith can be measured by the changes and choices it brings to our life.

Inviting People to Join the Choir

The St. Henry Parish Choir is starting to practice music for our Lenten, Holy Week and Easter Liturgies. We invite new members to join at this time. Previous musical training is not required, only a love of music. The Choir is open to all persons high school age and above. It is a very friendly and lively group.

Rehearsals are held in the Church every Tuesday, 7:00 to 8:30 PM. The Choir sings at each 10 AM Sunday Mass, except the third Sunday each month when it sings at 12 Noon.

Consider making Choir a part of your Lenten observance this year. By joining you will be serving your parish in a very important ministry. Call director, Chad Perry with any questions, 201-935-5727. St. Augustine has told us "Those who sing, pray twice". We hope to see you Tuesday.

We have a “Rock Star” in our midst, and a new hero here at St. Henry Religious Education Program and our City of Bayonne. On Tuesday, January 22nd, Sophie Engdall was honored by our Religious Education Program and two of our City officials—Council President Sharon Ashe Nadrowski and Second Ward Councilman Sal Gullace. Also in attendance, representing St. Henry Parish were Father Alfie and 100 Junior High Students and their respective catechists; Sophie's mom Stacey, brother Jack, other close members of her family, 2nd mom Jenna and best friend Zoey (Sophie's dad couldn't be there as he was on a business trip); Sophie's principal from Horace Mann School Dr. Catherine Quinn and her husband John. Why the recognition? Sophie saw something, said something and did something! Being concerned for people's safety, Sophie questioned one of our City officials as to why the pedestrian walkway on 40th St. and Avenue E was closed. She was aware of people who were killed trying to cross over the Rt. 440 highway in past years. Sophie wrote a letter to Mayor Davis explaining her concern and almost instantaneously the pedestrian walkway was opened. At St. Henry Religious Education, we teach the children to be Christ-like, to do God's work on earth by being his disciples. We also instill in our students to be the change they wish to see in the world. Sophie Engdall, you are St. Henry's and Bayonne's latest hero and disciple of Christ! Thank you and may God bless you!
