Thoughts and Reflections:

Lent helps us to renew our relationship with God and strengthen our religious practice. How can we achieve this the rest of the year? The obvious answer is to do whatever we do during Lent all year round. But part of the power of Lent is that we focus as a community on renewing our faith and preparing for Easter. Our Lenten practices have a purpose and a goal. Therein lies the secret. When we focus our efforts on one virtue, or try to change one bad habit, or seek to deepen our understanding of one aspect of faith, we give our full attention to what we are trying to accomplish. We tend to be more successful achieving our goals. More importantly, it has a ripple effect in our lives: one thing changes or is added to the spiritual mix of our lives and many aspects are changed. All too often we leave our spiritual growth to chance and then we wonder why we have no sense of growth or progress. Think of it in terms of exercise—we walk, lift weights, bend and stretch to attain the maximum benefit from what we do. Spirituality requires the same kind of attention—we pray, fast, read the Bible, receive the sacraments, and do charitable work to maximize the benefits of practicing our faith. Keeping Lent year round keeps us in spiritual shape.

2025 LENTEN REGULATIONS

1. The days of both Fast and Abstinence during Lent are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the “paschal fast” to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily His Resurrection. The other Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence.

On a day of Fast, only one (1) full meal is permitted, and two (2) smaller meals, which if added together, would not exceed the main meal in quantity.

Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast.

On a day of Abstinence, no meat may be eaten. Those who have reached the age of 14 are obliged by the law of abstinence.

2. The obligation to observe the laws of Fast and Abstinence “substantially”, or as a whole, is a serious obligation.

3. The Fridays of the year, outside of Lent, are designated as days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial as penance.

4. The time for fulfilling the Paschal Precept (Easter Duty) extends from the First Sunday of Lent, March 9, to The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, June 15, 2025.

*Canon 920, §1. All the faithful, after they have been initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, are bound by the obligation of receiving Communion at least once a year.

Our Lenten Music

The music for our weekend Masses reflects the spirit of the Lenten season—quiet reflection and prayer. We sing the “Kyrie eleison.” Translation from the Greek is “Lord, have mercy”. This prayer goes back to the very early church. It was sung as a processional and gathering hymn for those coming to celebrate Eucharist.

We will use a more contemporary setting of Psalm 51 as our seasonal Psalm. Your response each week is “Create in me, create in me, a clean heart, O God.”

Several other mass parts will be sung using the 13th C. Benedictine chant “Adoro Te Devote,” a melody loved and promoted by St. Thomas Aquinas (#478 in the hymnal). In addition, we will sing the “Lamb of God” (Agnus Dei) in Latin, since Roman Catholicism is known historically as “the Latin Rite Church.” It is # 384.

No organ postludes are played during Lent. Instead, we leave the building quietly. They will again be heard at Easter.

May the spirit and sound of our Lenten music help us to better experience this season of prayer, charity for others, and fasting.

In the spirit of joy and thanksgiving, we would like to invite you to the Mass of Thanksgiving celebrating the

2025 Archbishop’s Annual Appeal

The 2025 Annual Appeal has begun! Each year we are invited to participate in the Annual Appeal, which is an opportunity to support essential ministries and programs of our Archdiocese. Your sacrificial support makes it possible for us to carry out the important work that we are called to do as missionary disciples of Jesus.

Please consider participating in this year’s Appeal to help make a significant difference in many lives within our Archdiocese. You can make a gift online today by visiting rcan.org/sharing.

Our Parish Goal is $44,380.60. To date, $4,865.00 has been pledged and $4,210.00 has been received. The Archdiocese requires us to meet this goal. If we do not, we must contribute the difference between our goal and the actual amount of pledges received. We, therefore, ask that you prayerfully consider making your gift or pledge to the 2025 Annual Appeal. Pledge/Gift envelopes are located at the doors of our church. You may bring your envelopes to the Parish Office, or add a stamp and mail it directly to the Archdiocese of Newark (do not mail cash). As always, your generosity is appreciated.
