A man owned a large and successful business. When his son wanted to work for him, he gave him a job, working in maintenance. He started him at the bottom so that he would better appreciate what it takes to run a business well. More importantly he wanted his son to understand the whole business, and contribute to it, not just cash in on his father's success. They would both rejoice in a job well done.

We are the children of God, heirs of the Father's business, which is life. The struggle is between good and evil and the greatest weapon of evil is death. It is final, the end of hope and all possibility of change. Jesus must destroy death so that life, eternal life, might be possible. That is why Jesus dies to take on sin's weapon and destroy it by his resurrection.

It was not to satisfy God's sense of justice, but to meet sin on its own terms and defeat it. If sin triumphs in the death of Jesus, it is only for a moment. The final word will yet be spoken. Since we are heirs and coworkers with God, ours is the struggle with the remnants of evil, its last desperate attempt to overcome good. Like Jesus, we are about the Father's business in our daily life, carrying the message of salvation to everyone. We are strengthened in our struggle and come to realize the great gift of life with which we are graced. It is our hope that one day we will rejoice with the Father in a job well done.

Listening Session

The season of Lent is a time for conversion and growth. It is a time to prepare ourselves to become more like Christ. The current situation in which the Catholic Church finds herself is troubling to comprehend. For most of us, there is a combination of concern for the Church and her future along with anger and confusion about the Church that we love. Deacon Peter Fiori, a staff member of RENEW International, is coming to Bayonne to facilitate a listening session on Monday, April 1st at 7 PM. The session will take place in the Andrean Room at St. Andrew School, which is located at the corner of Broadway and 4th Street. Everyone is invited to join us as we walk together on the pathway of hope and healing.

2018 LENTEN REGULATIONS

- 1) The days of both Fast and Abstinence during Lent are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily His Resurrection. The other Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence. On a Day of Fast only 1 full meal is permitted, and 2 smaller meals, which, if added together would not exceed the main meal in quantity. Those between 18 and 59 are obliged to fast; on a day of Abstinence, no meat may be eaten. Those who have reached the age of 14 are obliged by the law of abstinence.
- 2) The obligation to observe the laws of Fast and Abstinence substantially, or as a whole, is a serious obligation.
- 3) The Fridays of the year, outside of Lent, are designated as days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self denial as penance.
- 4) The time for fulfilling the Paschal Precept (Easter Duty) extends from the First Sunday of Lent, March 10, 2019 to the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, June 16, 2019.
