The Eucharist, like all sacraments, offers its own unique grace. We receive a special share in God's life that helps us in our faith journey. We are given all we need to sustain and nurture our relationship with God. The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. Everything we are and everything we hope to become is found in this sacrament. It is essential to the life of the church, to each member of the church. The Eucharist is the center of our spiritual life and has enormous effects on our growth, our holiness, and our way of life.

The fruits of holy Communion are the benefits one receives from the sacrament. These fruits of holy Communion are discussed in the catechism in the article on the Eucharist. The primary benefit is union with Christ. We become one with him sacramentally, just as we hope to become one with him for eternity. The Eucharist also separates us from sin, both past and future. It forgives the venial sins of the past and, by the love we receive, protects us from mortal sin in the future. The church community is also unified and strengthened by the Eucharist. It unites us to the poor and offers the pledge of eternal life.

Corona Virus Pandemic

Unfortunately the effects of this pandemic still persist, and although governmental leadership tells us that there is some plateauing, which is hopeful, we continue to be directed to keep social distance and not gather in any way.

Here at St. Henry we are celebrating our Masses daily but privately (Monday through Saturday at 12 Noon and Sundays at 10 AM), and they are being live-streamed via Facebook (St. Henry RC Church). We are so grateful for the assistance of a few of our parishioners in this endeavor.

Once again, I must sing the praises of our St. Henry parishioners who have been consistently sending in their offerings as well as their Easter contributions, so that we may continue to address our ongoing expenses. I also wish to remind everyone that we have an easy, safe and efficient way of sending your offerings, Parish Giving, which can be accessed on our website home page, top right. Click on the logo and follow the easy instructions.

We depend on our faith to remain hopeful during these difficult days. Let us continue to pray for our Lord's guidance and grace to move through this pandemic with health, patience and kindness. May God bless you and your families.
