One of life's joys is the powerful bond of love that connects us to special persons. In our country we think in these terms this weekend because it brings Mother's Day. We celebrate our unique love and respect for these wonderful women who gave us birth and loved us from the first moment of our existence in their wombs. Spiritually, we children of God extend that love to our heavenly Mother Mary. We know that her tender care for us is much like that of our natural mothers. That's why the Church dedicates this beautiful month to her. We also note that Mary always points our attention toward her Divine Son, one of whose titles is that of the Good Shepherd.

On this annual occasion, we try all sorts of traditional ways to honor the bond with our mothers. If we are fortunate enough to still have her with us, this becomes a sweet duty. We know that we can never thank her enough for all that she has done for us. As we ponder over reasons to admire our mothers, one of them for sure is their tremendous trust in God as they partnered with our dads to raise us to adulthood.

The writer William Barclay beautifully notes that "Jesus was so sure of Himself because he was so sure of God". Those words capture quite well the kind of trust our mothers have. And they become a foundational example for all of us sons and daughters to emulate.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER is observed today, May 12, 2019, also known as "Good Shepherd Sunday". The purpose of this day is to publically fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). Please pray that young men and women hear and respond generously to the Lord's call to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, societies of apostolic life or secular institutes.

Many of us will spend this day with our moms, celebrating the joy that is Mother's Day. Others will remember fondly their departed moms who offered such a good example and love all their lives. Still others will look forward to the gift of motherhood. Whatever way you celebrate, may this day be a time of prayerful thanksgiving!
