Jesus gave the Church the Eucharist to bring together and strengthen faithful people in community. Christians have gathered for sharing stories, breaking bread, and sharing the cup from the earliest times. The Eucharist binds us together as family, with believers here on earth in communion with those who have gone before us. Nourished by God's word and Christ's Body and Blood, supported by our faith community, we struggle to emulate Jesus for the world.

The feast we celebrate this weekend is a call for us to stop and reflect on the great gift of Jesus in the Eucharist. This is really a remembrance of Holy Thursday evening, but without the many other aspects of Holy Week. We are the people who see the gift of Jesus in the Eucharist as a food for the spiritual journey of life. We see Eucharist as thanksgiving and nourishment. This one gift offers each of us all that we need to live the life that God expects.
