Name any book or movie about tales from the sea, and you're bound to meet up with a scary storm. Often enough, great tragedies follow. The occurrences of migrants trying to escape from wars, violence and suppression in their countries in overcrowded boats, capsizing and then drowning by the hundreds reminds us that the sea can be treacherous. You can say that a storm at sea represents mankind's vulnerability amid any seemingly overpowering chaos. That is why sailors may cry out to God. Does God hear our cries? He seems oblivious at times in our own lives.

Yes, life brings "squalls" that come up, sometimes quite suddenly, tossing the little boats of our lives every which way. We gripe and ask "Are you sleeping, God?" Are you so calm and secure in your heaven above as to forget me in this hellish situation?" But never fear. What, after all, do we pray when we say, "The Lord hears the cry of the poor". We are all poor to some extent.

Junior High Class – Peter Khalil

I would like to thank God for the opportunity to be part of St. Henry Catechist Team, and I'm grateful for everyone in our class: John Pawlowski, Natalie Grace Cantonjos, Olivia Sobolewski, Evan Olander, Mason McCrossen, Isabell DeRocco, Aaliyah Matias, Kiara Crumpe, Ryan Aidukas, Kennel Cotter, Aleksandra Malek, Leanna Pelliccia, Christian Gunshefski, Michael Gunshefski & Olivia DeRocco.

The following topics from the "Christ is Us" book were covered in class: Bible Library, Deposit of Faith, Covenant, Trinity, Abram Model of Faith, The Last Judgement, Immaculate Conception, Incarnation, Ascension, Mark of the Church, Apostolic Succession, Sacramentals, Paschal Mystery, Sacraments of Christian Initiation, Priesthood, Confirmation, Sacraments of Healing, Conversions, Vocations, Bishop, Priest, Deacon, Marriage Covenant, Soul, Free Will, Natural Law, Conscience, Theological Virtues, Cardinal Virtues, Common Good, Justice, Solidarity, Ten Commandments, Original Sin, Mortal Sin, Sanctifying Grace, Prayer of Petition, Prayer of Intercession, Psalm, Kingdom of God, Lord's Prayer, Liturgical Year, Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Baptism, Wedding Feast at Cana, Lent, Easter.

We read some paragraphs from the bible and studied it in the context of the catechism for each lesson. We watched 5 minute videos about the Saints of the Church; we prayed together before and after each lesson – Our Father, Glory Be, Hail Mary, St. Michael the Archangel, Apostle's Creed, Nicene Creed, Canticle; we used the Liturgy of the Hours from the Divine Office, and used the game Kahoot to review each lesson. It was a time for praying and opening our minds, hearts and souls to the Word of God and the Catechism of our Catholic Church.

I give great thanks to Ms. Marie Pope for welcoming me to share this year with the St. Henry Religious Education Program.

The Little Sisters of the Poor

The Little Sisters of the Poor are committed to preserving the original charism of their Foundress Saint Jeanne Jugan, by giving happiness to the elderly and meeting their needs at this difficult time. This year, the Little Sisters are unable to come to our parish themselves, but their needs are current especially during this present health crisis. Their website, www.littlesistersofthepoortotowa.org can be accessed to providing info as to how to send monetary donations online and also provides their address at which any offerings can be mailed. May their holy patron, St. Joseph, protect you always.

Parish Registration

Your parish is your spiritual home. We invite you to register with St. Henry Parish. If you are not sure whether or not you are already registered, call Jean at the rectory office—201-436-0857, Ext. 110. However, if you are not receiving offering envelopes or various parish mailings, chances are you are not registered. Keep in mind that a person is not automatically a registered member because they were married here, or received other sacraments here.

To register, complete a registration form at the Parish Office, Monday—Thursday, 9 AM—3:30 PM, or call Jean if you would like the form mailed to you

Remember that membership with your parish is a requirement if you wish to be a godparent or a sponsor for Confirmation. Parents who wish to have their child baptized at St. Henry's must be members of the parish.
