Being a disciple, as we well know all these centuries later, demands being open to a radical change in our thinking from whatever philosophy happens to hold sway at a particular time and place. Our lifestyle is likely to be different from others as an outward expression of this mindset. Besides, it often takes a giant leap of faith into the unknown on our part. What makes that ultimately possible, of course, is love.

We can compare this love to that in a happy marriage. When a man and woman give their “yes” to each other for life, they do so with no idea of what’s ahead for them or how it will all turn out. There are no guarantees. Except for their trust in each other and deep love, the risk would be overwhelming. The same could be said for persons who answer the Lord’s call to priestly or religious vocation. Trust and love are paramount.

All this is equally true for those who commit to the Christian way of life. Following Jesus does not give one an address on “Easy Street.” Once we set out to live our decision, we know that looking back with any regret is counterproductive.

At this time of year, when gardening is at its peak, here’s a bit of true wisdom: “A person’s character and his/her garden both reflect the amount of weeding that was done during the growing season.”

Parish Registration

Formal membership with the parish in which you feel comfortable creates a sense of family. It is your spiritual home. We invite you to register with St. Henry Parish. If you are not sure whether or not you are already registered, call Jean at the rectory office—201-436-0857. However, if you are not receiving offering envelopes or various parish mailings, chances are you are not registered. Keep in mind that a person is not automatically a registered member because they were married here, were brought up here or attended St. Henry's school. To register, come to the rectory office, between 9 AM and 4 PM weekdays and simply complete a registration card. If this is not possible, call Jean at the rectory office. Remember that membership with your parish is a requirement if you wish to be a godparent or a sponsor for Confirmation. Parents who wish to have their child baptized or who wish to register their child for religious education must be members of the parish.
