We know the content of the Bible has been fixed for some time, although the message it sends is for all time. The mission and message of the Church endure to this very day. A calling goes out to each one of us from the same Jesus who started it all with its foundation on St. Peter and his calling. God's call to us is hardly random or mechanical. Its purpose is to reveal to the world the message it needs to hear. One which generates a peace and satisfaction to the human heart that the things of this world simply cannot.

We know deep down the truth of this belief. At a certain point in life we realize that all this striving, this compulsion of competition, this push for power, wealth, honor and fame is all just "sound and fury" as Mr. Shakespeare wisely pointed out. What God wants you and me to realize also is that we have our mission, our calling. It is mysterious, yes. It can also be irksome. But it is good, above all. Here are Saint John Henry Cardinal Newman's thoughts on this matter: "God has created me to do Him some definite service: He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good; I shall do His work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place while not intending it – if I do but keep His commandments. Therefore I will trust Him. Whatever, wherever I am I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him. In perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him. In sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends; he may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink; hide my future from me - still He knows what He is about."

The Little Sisters of the Poor

The Little Sisters of the Poor are committed to preserving the original charism of their Foundress Saint Jeanne Jugan, by giving happiness to the elderly and meeting their needs at this difficult time. This year, the Little Sisters are unable to come to our parish themselves, but their needs are current especially during this present health crisis. Their website, www.littlesistersofthepoortotowa.org can be accessed to providing info as to how to send monetary donations online and also provides their address at which any offerings can be mailed. May their holy patron, St. Joseph, protect you always.

Parish Registration

Your parish is your spiritual home. We invite you to register with St. Henry Parish. If you are not sure whether or not you are already registered, call Jean at the rectory office—201-436-0857, Ext. 110. However, if you are not receiving offering envelopes or various parish mailings, chances are you are not registered. Keep in mind that a person is not automatically a registered member because they were married here, or received other sacraments here.

To register, complete a registration form at the Parish Office, Monday—Thursday, 9 AM—3:30 PM, or call Jean if you would like the form mailed to you

Remember that membership with your parish is a requirement if you wish to be a godparent or a sponsor for Confirmation. Parents who wish to have their child baptized at St. Henry's must be members of the parish.

A Note from Bishop Gregory Studerus about HUDSON CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL:

"With my offices established last year on the campus of Hudson Catholic High School, I have come to see and know the quality of, and the dedication to, Catholic education being offered here. To see the renewal and growth of this important Catholic institution impressed me deeply, especially as I witnessed the creativity and professional skill with which the school met the great challenges of the pandemic that affected us all.

Hudson Catholic maintains its important and fundamental identity as a Catholic school, encouraging, and in many cases introducing, our Catholic faith to young people as it forms them with all they need educationally to meet their goals in life.

Let me encourage you, as you consider decisions about your children's future, to give serious consideration to our Hudson Catholic High School. Please feel free to contact the high school to learn of the many opportunities the school offers, including through its association with St. Peter's University.

Sincerely yours,

Most Rev. Gregory Studerus

Auxiliary Bishop for Hudson County"

St. Henry Mass Schedule – Additional Information:

We will no longer be livestreaming our weekday Masses and ONLY the 12 Noon Mass on Sunday will be livestreamed on the weekend.

Please note that we CONTINUE to celebrate one Mass each weekday at 12 Noon and the scheduled intentions for 8:30 AM and 12:05 PM will be honored together at this Mass.

The decision was made to continue to celebrate one Mass each weekday as the St. Benedict chapel is too small to comfortably and safely accommodate too many communicants and it is too expensive to cool or heat the main church from early morning to after the 12:00 PM Mass. We plan to revisit this decision in a few months to determine when we can go back to our regular weekday Mass schedule. Thank you for your understanding!

Tuesday, July 13th is the Feast of Saint Henry. When our parish was founded, the parishioners chose to name the new parish in honor of the patron of Bavaria. Many of the first parishioners were immigrants from that part of the world. They established a parish, dedicated a beautiful church, and since then the parish has been an integral part of the community. We, the beneficiaries of their foresight and interest, should pledge ourselves to continue to work to make Saint Henry Parish a place of welcoming and sharing. We should be proud of Saint Henry Parish, past, present and, with God's help, in the future.

Lord, you filled St. Henry with Your love and raised him from the cares of an earthly kingdom to eternal happiness in heaven.

In the midst of the changes of this world, may his prayer keep us free from sin and help us on our way towards you. Amen.
