As we go through our lives we naturally have times where we have to go to God. His voice is the one we need to hear. The unexpected twists and turns in life are sometimes enough to set us off balance. The unexpected illness of a child; the unwanted job loss; the effects of a sudden sickness, or the gradual physical decline of old age. Sometimes we have to drop all the comfort of our accustomed to routines to consider things in the light of eternity.

Yes, the practicalities of life demand that we strike a balance in our thinking. After all, we have to pay the cable bill if we want to watch TV. We need to take the children to the dentist. Grandmother may need that ride to the supermarket. But daily prayer is also part of Christian living, as is Sunday Mass and regular confession. If we're hoping to spend eternity with God in the next life, we should be developing our friendship with Him in this life. In that way we will not be strangers to each other when we are judged outside heaven's gate.

The magnificent cathedral in Milan, Italy features three inscriptions over the respective doorways. Over the right-hand door there is this one: "All that pleases is but for a moment." Over the left-hand door the words are: "All that troubles is but for a moment." But over the central door there is the most poignant: "Nothing is important save that which is eternal."

The Youth Ministry CAR WASH was a huge success!

Our Youth car washers numbered about 25 of the youth of our parish. They washed over 50 cars and free will offerings amounted to $411. Pizza and soda were refreshments along with sandwiches donated by the Aidukas family, bagels with all the trimmings donated by Will from Broadway Hot Bagels, drinks and chips donated by Amy Sweeny. Thanks to Mr. Oconer for his offer of hoses and lending of brushes, etc.; to Father Alfie, Father Raul and Seminarian Christian; Amy Sweeny and her granddaughter Kailley Delauter; Rich Marchitto and his daughter Nicole; George, Margaret and Angel Abrams; Erin and Joe Aidukas; Moira Harden, Ericka Rodas, Andrew and John Smith, Joshua, Jamie and Jericho Oconer, Ryan and Olivia Aidukas and her two friends; Kaylee and Avery Sullivan, Isabella and Mia Alvarez and their dad Sochetes and mom Francia; Chris Roeheny and yours truly Marie Pope. Special thanks to all who supported our Youth Car Wash. It meant so much to all of us. And special thanks to Chip O'Connell who helped to set up and disconnect the hoses.

We are now planning our next youth adventure to Six Flags Great Adventure in Jackson, and the next event may be to go see the Staten Island Yankees.

Please pray for the continued resurgence of our St. Henry Youth Ministry Group and their families. All the youth of our parish are invited to join in on the fun and activities!

Parish Registration

Formal membership with the parish in which you feel comfortable creates a sense of family. It is your spiritual home. We invite you to register with St. Henry Parish. If you are not sure whether or not you are already registered, call Jean at the rectory office—201-436-0857. However, if you are not receiving offering envelopes or various parish mailings, chances are you are not registered. Keep in mind that a person is not automatically a registered member because they were married here, were brought up here or attended St. Henry's school. To register, come to the rectory office, between 9 AM and 4 PM weekdays and simply complete a registration card. If this is not possible, call Jean at the rectory office. Remember that membership with your parish is a requirement if you wish to be a godparent or a sponsor for Confirmation. Parents who wish to have their child baptized or who wish to register their child for religious education must be members of the parish.
