We believers in Jesus acknowledge that He always holds up the ideal for us to follow. He does this to enlighten us, not to frighten us. To illustrate but not to frustrate. To motivate but not enervate. Any physician of the mind would tell us that we need ideals to admire and goals to shoot for to give added purpose for our lives.

It is necessary and spiritually beneficial for divorced persons to remember that they are valued members of the Church. There is a false idea floating around that divorced people are automatically excommunicated. That is not church teaching.

It is good for each and every follower of Jesus to be well informed of the Church's position and practice on the subject when divorce is so prevalent and false understanding does such harm. The official Catechism gives us the teaching, and the Sunday Eucharist gives us the strength to live it in whatever circumstances we find ourselves in life.

Meanwhile, in a culture that has devalued marriage, we have before us a graced opportunity for good Catholic married couples to exemplify by their lives how to live out the Christian "brand name" conferred on them at Baptism. It is still true, as the hymn puts it, that "they will know us by our love".

SACRED RELICS OF THE SAINTS

Treasures of the Church

Sacred Relics of the Saints: TREASURES OF THE CHURCH

St. Henry Parish will present a teaching and exposition of Sacred Relics on Wednesday, October 6th at 7:00 PM in the Church. Fr. Carlos Martins of the Companions of the Cross will be here with an extraordinary Vatican collection of over 150 relics of St. Joseph, St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux, St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Faustina Kowalska. There will also be a portion of the Veil of Our Lady and one of the largest remaining pieces of the True Cross in the world. Those in attendance will be able to examine and venerate each relic. Throughout history, many healings have been worked in the presence of relics; and thousands have occurred through this ministry. Do not miss this opportunity. You are encouraged to bring your articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards, etc.) and pictures of ill friends/family members, which you will be able to touch to the reliquaries as a means of intercession. For most, this will be a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Please spread the word!
