Communion: A priest or Eucharistic Minister of the parish home. Please call the rectory.

A woman's son and his friends were given two weeks notice to move out of their house. The woman suggested they throw a cleaning/moving party. She provided the food, drinks and cleaning supplies. They provided the music and the muscle. The party was a great success. The house got cleaned, the move was completed in one afternoon, and everyone went home happy. Later that week a thank you card arrived from one of the son's housemates. "Thank you for the party, we couldn't have done it without you. You're the greatest".

Do we take the time to reflect back on each day or do we just keep moving on? Do we recognize the healing in our lives or focus only on the suffering? Do we realize that we "couldn't have done it without" God, or do we attribute our successes to good luck or our own hard work?

The Eucharist is our habitual, public praise and thanks to God. We give thanks for the gifts of creation and the covenant. We give thanks for the gift of redemption that is ours through Jesus Christ and for the gifts that the Holy Spirit pours out on us. In the Eucharist, each of us should also give thanks for the gifts of God in our lives.
