If your biographer were to ask about the parts of your morning routine how would you answer? Well, I take a shower? I brush my teeth? Whatever you would say, I hope it would include morning prayer. That's not only good but it's a great way to start the gift of a new day in your life.

We can derive at least two unmistakable qualities of true prayer, no matter when in our day we do it:

(1) No one who is proud can pray. We must "bend down" from any position of pride to reach God in prayer.

(2) No one who despises others can pray. If there is someone in your life, be it a family member, neighbor, acquaintance, political figure, office holder, TV commentator, columnist, etc. etc., who is on your list of "detestables" you have to forgive them before praying. Period.

A traveler made a train journey to England. As he passed through Yorkshire he saw a little white-washed cottage that seemed to shine with an almost radiant whiteness. A few days later he made the journey back to Scotland. The snow had fallen and was lying deep all around. When he came again to pass the little white cottage, its whiteness seemed drab and dirty and almost grey in comparison with the pure whiteness of the driven snow.

It all depends on with whom or what we compare ourselves. When we set our lives beside the life of Jesus and the holiness of God, all that is left to say, any time we pray is: "O God be merciful to me, a sinner."

Our Parish Family Time was a huge success! Our first ever Paint Party saw over 50 children and their families paint pictures of pumpkins, fall leaves and other pictures depicting the season. Special thanks to Kari Habib, Aida Lopez, Rich Marchitto, Amy Sweeny, just to name a few. Thanks to all who helped make our parish family time a huge success.

This past weekend I walked for my sister, Karen, who is a breast cancer survivor, in Staten Island—Making Strides. Thanks to all of the St. Henry families and friends who joined us. We pray for all the people affected by breast cancer, their families and friends. We pray for all people with cancer and other illnesses. Please God, give them the healing and strength they need to get through their difficult time.

Congratulations to our thirty-nine 9th grade Confirmation candidates, along with the candidates from the other three parishes, who attended the Bayonne Deanery Retreat in Kearny on Saturday, October 15th. Following the retreat, all of the 124 candidates returned to St. Henry for the Sacrament of Reconciliation followed by a family 5:30 PM Mass. Our candidates were awesome and conducted themselves in an outstanding manner. Special thanks to all the priests who assisted with the Sacrament of Reconciliation; to Fr. Raul and Fr. Alfie, our parish priests, for their support and love. Special Thanks to Brian Caldwell and his team from the Retreat Center for an outstanding retreat. The candidates enjoyed it and walked away in a more spiritual place in their lives.

Please join me and Father Alfie in congratulating Marie Pope, who will be honored by the Bayonne Youth Center Board of Bayonne for her dedication, commitment and work with the youth of St. Henry Parish and the community of Bayonne. Marie will be honored at the Chandelier Restaurant on Friday, October 28th. ## Parish Registration

Formal membership with the parish in which you feel comfortable creates a sense of family. Your parish is your spiritual home. We invite you to register with St. Henry Parish. If you are not sure whether or not you are already registered, call Jean at the rectory office—201-436-0857. However, if you are not receiving offering envelopes or various parish mailings, chances are you are not registered. Keep in mind that a person is not automatically a registered member because they were married here, were brought up here or attended St. Henry's school. To register, come to the rectory office, between 9 AM and 4 PM weekdays and simply complete a registration card. If this is not possible, call Jean at the rectory office.

Remember that membership with your parish is a requirement if you wish to be a godparent or a sponsor for Confirmation. Parents who wish to have their child baptized or who wish to register their child for religious education must be members of the parish.
