St. Henry Parish Office Hours

MONDAY – THURSDAY

9:00 AM – 3:00 PM

If your biographer were to ask about the parts of your morning routine, how would you answer? Well, I take a shower? I brush my teeth? Whatever you would say, I hope it would include morning prayer. That's not only good but it's a great way to start the gift of a new day in your life.

We can derive at least two unmistakable qualities of true prayer, no matter when in our day we can do it:

1. No one who is proud can pray. We must "bend down" from any position of pride to reach God in prayer.
2. No one who despises others can pray. If there is someone in your life, be it a family member, neighbor, acquaintance, political figure, office holder, TV commentator, columnist, etc., who is on your list of "detestables" you have to forgive them before praying. Period.

A traveler made a train journey to England. As he passed through Yorkshire he saw a little white-washed cottage that seemed to shine with an almost radiant whiteness. A few days later he made the journey back to Scotland. The snow had fallen and was lying deep all around. When he came again to pass the little white cottage, its whiteness seemed drab and dirty and almost grey in comparison with the pure whiteness of the driven snow. It all depends on with whom or what we compare ourselves. When we set our lives beside the life of Jesus and the holiness of God, all that is left to say, any time we pray is: "O God be merciful to me, a sinner".

The communal celebration of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will take place NEXT SUNDAY, October 30th at the 12 Noon Mass.

However, if you are not receiving offering envelopes or various parish mailings, chances are you are not registered. To register, complete a registration form at the Parish Office, Monday—Thursday, 9 AM—3:30 PM, or call Jean if you would like the form mailed to you Remember that membership with your parish is a requirement if you wish to be a godparent or a sponsor for Confirmation. Parents who wish to have their child baptized at St. Henry's must be members of the parish.

Call Marie Pope, 908-612-6674, for more information.

Please remember Lisa Cerbone Gallo in your prayers. She passed away following 10 years of battling breast cancer. Her suffering has ceased and she now rests in the arms of our Lord. Lisa joins an elite group of catechists and volunteers of St. Henry Parish who God has called home over the past 2 years. Please keep them in your prayers as well: Debbie Lucas-McGady, Toni Napolitano and Rich Marchitto. Lisa, Debbie, Toni and Rich were so dedicated to God's children with whom they shared their faith and love.

For many years, Lisa helped beautifully decorate St. Henry Church for Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter. Lisa Loved preparing the 2nd grade children for first reconciliation and first communion and the children loved being taught by her. When I was diagnosed with leukemia a year ago, Lisa stepped up to the plate, as she did so many times in her life. Our friendship continued to develop as we shared our cancer journeys. Due to my inability to be at the office in person, both Lisa and Shena DeMoya worked to maintain a semblance of order for our Religious Education program. Please pray for Lisa's family and friends, especially her husband Steve and their children, Colin, Kerry and Caroline. Rest in Peace, my friend, you were my inspiration and always will be.

- Marie Pope

All parents/guardians will be apprised via email by your child's catechists prior to classes on Sunday, 10/23 and Wednesday 10/26. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to call me at 908-612-6674.

Your support of this Christian tradition, which helps protect this important culture and industry, is very much appreciated.
