Sacrament of the Sick/Homebound

Anointing: Anytime upon request in the home of the sick.
Communion: A priest or Eucharistic Minister of the parish will bring Communion to those parishioners confined to home. Please call the rectory.

No priest worthy of the name seeks out a pedestal to stand on because of some misguided conviction that he is somehow superior to the rest of mankind. We are all pilgrims in the Church on earth. Nevertheless, apart from individuals, this same priesthood is also a necessity for the Church. Quite simply put, without the priest there is no Eucharist. Without the Eucharist there is no Church.

Being a priest in the present day is much different from what it was decades ago. Priests are now ready made targets of cynicism. Of course, any good leader inevitably offends someone. Jesus certainly did. Add to this the obvious shortage of priests, and the increased demands now spread among fewer men.

One thing hasn't changed. For those truly called, the life of a priest is fantastic, or "awesome" if you prefer. The great High Priest Jesus Christ fills their lives with more delight than distress. So please say your favorite prayer today for all priests, with special note of those who have served you sacramentally. And don't forget our heroic seminarians.

Today, October 25th is PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY

Priesthood Sunday is a special day set aside to honor, reflect upon and affirm the role of the Priesthood in the life of the Church. The ministries of the Church are many and varied, but God shows His goodness by sending priests that care for the People of God. Today we ask God to bless our dear Bishop Tom, who we miss so much, and Father Alfie Pangilinan, Father Raul Gaviola, Father Raphael Lee, and all the other priests who have served here at St. Henry parish over the years and who have faithfully built up the Body of Christ.
