In an article on “successful aging”, (New Theology Review, November, 2010), Dr. Lawrence M. Lenoir proposes that the art of giving and receiving love is at the heart of growing old gracefully. Research shows that being in a loving relationship quiets the demons of depression and despair. So, if you want to be healthy, be loving. Jesus would agree.

Loving is a contagious activity. If you are loved, you tend to be loving. Our love must flow outward in compassionate generosity. The Lord calls on us to show love by not oppressing and wronging the weak and defenseless and not extorting the poor. Those who have received the Holy Spirit and live in community with the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are called on to love one another.

It is sometimes difficult to love, especially when we have been hurt by others. Ask the Holy Spirit to bring you the “fire of God’s love”. Call on the Spirit to deepen your awareness of God’s love for you, shown by giving us life and the gifts of faith, hope and love.

Religious Education

ST. HENRY'S REMOTE Religious Education

St. Henry remote Confirmation classes started Sunday, October 18th with much joy, happiness and fun. I joined both classes remotely as well. It was awesome to see and hear all of the Confirmation candidates from both classes. A big shout out to all the candidates and their catechists, Christine Sorrentino and Jessica Becker for beginning the classes with such a positive approach while reconnecting with the Holy Spirit. A shout out as well to the parents/guardians who have supported their children and us at the St. Henry Religious Education catechetical team. Together, let us all continue on this faith journey toward receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation. God bless everyone. Thank you, Marie Pope

If you have not picked up your child's Confirmation book and signed the policy document from the Archdiocese of Newark, please call me as soon as possible. The next Confirmation class is Sunday, October 25th. For more information, call Marie at 201-339-0319 or her cell 908-612-6674.
