Church bells offer a triple-tiered message. They announce; they remind; they warn. They announce the schedule of holy Masses. As such they underscore the importance of taking time out to think of and worship almighty God. They remind the community of how important this time is. Perhaps they shake up the listeners who may have gotten drowsy from running “the rat race” without knowing why. Finally, they warn Christians that if you stay away from community worship, as it was recommended by God’s own Son, Who told us to “do this” in His memory, you’d better have a good reason. Christ, awaits our coming home to Him. That most of this running around we do down here, packing multiple meanings into many of our decisions, will amount to nothing when we finally get to meet God face to face.

It is possible that our entrance into heaven will depend on the “oil in our lamps”, namely our good works. Most of us do try to keep our symbolic lamps lit. We also admire those who do. The rescue workers who gave so generously of their time and talent during the recent hurricane crises caught our attention and tugged at our heart-strings. Yet it is those individual good efforts of ours that reflect Christ in the world on ordinary days as well that keep our lamps in oil.

Teaching through powerful imagery shows clearly that Jesus is the master Teacher. It also means that we pupils are at our best when we pay attention.

Congratulations to four amazing volunteers from our Religious Education program who will receive the Archdiocese Parish Youth Discipleship Award: Alyssa Santos & Gina Vaccaro, high school students who both received Confirmation in past years and continue to volunteer every Sunday morning during Religious Education classes helping with multiple projects.

The Archdiocese Parish Adult Light of the World Award will be presented to:

- 1) Amy Vieira – for her dedication, commitment and overall contribution and creation of our autism/special needs program here at St. Henry. Last year 6 autistic children received the Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Eucharist due to Amy's training as a special needs teacher in the public school system and her faith. 5 more children have been added to the program this year. She is amazing in every sense of the word and we thank her for her guidance and hard work to such a meaningful and necessary program for the children of St. Henry.
- 2) Aida Lopez – for her teaching, dedication and commitment to our Wednesday 2nd grade children, preparing for the Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Eucharist. Aida team teaches with Lisa Cerbone. She also volunteers to help with monthly parish family times and other special projects, and is always available if need be.

A very special thank you to our Sunday 4th Grade children who presented various saints in honor of All Saints Day. Some of the saints included Blessed Miriam Teresa Demjanovich, St. Henry, the Blessed Mother, St. Christopher, just to name a few. Special thanks as well to their catechists, Maria Florez and Janice Williams for helping the children provide this presentation every year.

Our next Family Time is Sunday, November 19th, following the 10 AM Mass. The Actor's Garage will be the provider of this event and all the children and their families are invited to attend. The children will make a commercial video using props such as Cheerios, Hersey candy and other great products. Refreshments will be served. No charge – free will offering. Parish Registration

Formal membership with the parish in which you feel comfortable creates a sense of family. Your parish is your spiritual home. We invite you to register with St. Henry Parish. If you are not sure whether or not you are already registered, call Jean at the rectory office—201-436-0857. However, if you are not receiving offering envelopes or various parish mailings, chances are you are not registered. Keep in mind that a person is not automatically a registered member because they were married here, were brought up here or attended St. Henry's school. To register, come to the rectory office, between 9 AM and 4 PM weekdays and simply complete a registration card. If this is not possible, call Jean at the rectory office.

Remember that membership with your parish is a requirement if you wish to be a godparent or a sponsor for Confirmation. Parents who wish to have their child baptized or who wish to register their child for religious education must be members of the parish.
