St. Henry Parish Office Hours

MONDAY—THURSDAY
9:00 AM—3:00 PM

It is sometimes a struggle to find the right words to say to friends and relatives during times of grief. Death is something that our culture does not handle well. We tend to shrink away from it and often see it more as a medical failure than a part of life. We are not all that comfortable with feelings of grief or loss either, so feeling awkward at times of loss is very common. The best thing to do is express your sorrow and concern for the person who has lost someone. Often stories and memories of the one who has died can help console the mourners. We all want our loved ones to be remembered, and sharing our thoughts can be very comforting.

The worst thing to do is deny that there is a loss or offer a sentimental comment, like “they are in a better place”. While well intentioned, this offers little to the one who is grieving. Perhaps the best thing we can do is simply be present, expressing by simple acts of kindness and support, our love and concern.

Pray for the Dead

Please use your All Souls envelopes in your envelope packets (they may also be found at the doors of the Church), to enroll your loved ones, as well as remember in a special way in the month of November all of our deceased relatives and friends. We as a parish should also remember our benefactors, priests and religious who served in our parish. May all the faithful departed rest in peace.

Religious Education

Spotlight on the Catechist JANE HRONIS

"My name is Jane Hronis, and this is my first year as a Catechist at St. Henry. I am teaching first grade and enjoying every minute of it.

Prior thereto I was an aide at St. Andrew's in Peggy Faulkner's special education classes on Saturday mornings. As such, I helped the children with their crafts, Bible verses and singing songs. I was also a substitute aide at a non-denominational church in Bayonne, doing much the same things I did at St. Andrew's.

I love children and have always wanted to teach them about God. I am very blessed that God is allowing me to teach them about the sacraments and traditions of the Catholic Church and to help them grow in the faith, especially in today's society where so many are choosing to follow the ways of the world rather than the ways of God.

The RCIA team, consisting of Nancy Kopacz, Veronica Pinto, Ericka Rodas, Nina Pazymino and Marie Pope, welcomed the adults who attended the first class last Sunday. It was a great first class, based upon the comments from the attendees and the RCIA team. Please continue to pray for all of our catechumens, candidates and team members.

RCIA classes will be held on the first and second Sunday of each month, 12PM to 1:30 PM, remotely. If you would like to receive the sacraments and are interested in joining our RCIA group, call Marie Pope at 908-612-6674.

Thank you to St. Henry's Track Team, their parents and coaches for their very generous donation of food for our Food Pantry! 8 Boxes with approximately 250 food items were collected. This will surely help the families in need of our parish and community in a very big way!

Your Parish of St. Henry sends our congratulations on a wonderful season of fun and hard work!
