Reflecting on the readings that come our way at Mass for these last weeks of the Liturgical year each November, we notice how they coincide with the shorter days, cooler nights and the falling leaves that are all part of the eleventh month. These Scriptures remind us that what seems to go on indefinitely will end when we least expect it, referring not only to our small personal allotment of years in this earth, but also to the macro matter of the end of the whole cosmos.

Are you "prepared for departure?" Are your carry-on bags, hopefully packed with good deeds added to each day, ready to be safely stowed in the overhead compartments? Is your personal bag of prayers able to fit fully under the seat in front of you? These are the only ways to be spiritually prepared for takeoff, with your seat belt securely fastened. Meantime, it is always a good idea to let the all-knowing "Pilot" up in the cockpit be the one to chart the course for your "final destination."

Our All Saints presentation was very "saintly"! We had St. Michael, St. Theresa of Avila, Blessed Mother, St. Mark, and so many more. Thank you to all of our saints from the 4th grade who put on a wonderful presentation. Thanks to our catechists Janice Williams and Maria Florez for their direction and guidance. We are all called to be saints!

Our special needs pilot program is growing each week in the number of children and in spirit! Amy Viera who facilitates the class with the assistance of Linda Gonzalez, Elisha DeMaria, Gina Kline, Unice Torres and Alyssa Gonzalez are doing an outstanding job using Loyola's Adaptive Program, especially designed for autistic children. On All Saints Day the children each held a picture card of a saint and were told who that saint was. The talent and skills in this classroom is awesome. The love from the moms of the children is so obvious. Please pray for these children and their parents every day! If you would like to visit this classroom please call Marie Pope at 201-339-0319.
