Kings are more than cards in a deck or pieces on a chessboard. We now them as the linchpins for many an historical account and their lives intersect with those of many revered saints. As time passed, they gradually changed from being staunch persecutors of Christianity to royal purveyors of it.

While we proudly live in a democratic republic, many of us remain fascinated by anyone who wears the crown in other nations. Here at home, the title can denote a chief company executive or a country's heroic founder, a master spirit, or an otherwise noteworthy person, at least of superior importance.

As we believe Jesus unconditionally, it is easy for us to add to today's feast its complete title for Christ, namely "King of the Universe". His coming judgment of us all on the Last Day is momentous. We should be keenly aware of how to get ready.

Like so many aspects of our relationship with God, that readiness is simple: habitual practice of good deeds done to our neighbor. And this presumably from a pure and loving heart. That's it. No need to make readiness more complex. Look no further.

As we celebrate Thanksgiving, it will surely be different this year, but there are myriad reasons to think and thank before we eat. One of the major ones is to remind ourselves that Jesus is Lord, our King, is loyal to and loving of us, His sisters and brothers. All He asks is our return of the favor.
