We have been notified by Cathedral Corporation that they will not be sending monthly envelopes for July in order to catch up production of its 3,000 plus customers. Please use either a previous month's envelope, the white, temporary envelopes we provided previously, or any envelope you may have. Just write the correct date on it. The company hopes to have the August envelopes mailed on time and to remain on schedule moving forward.